THE YORKTOWN CELEBRATION. With as much fervor as is com-

signing of the Declaration of Independence on the Fourth of July throughout the United States, the 129th anniversary of the achievement of independence or the birth of the republic was celebrated at Yorktown yesterday by thousands of Americans. On the exact spot where Lord Cornwallis surrended Princess Street and Potomac River to Gen. George Washington, and at the exact hour when the British soldiers marched out of Yorktown on October 19, 1781, the ceremonies took place.
